

Living and Learning, Learning and Teaching: mental health in higher education

Outline Programme

Tuesday, 30 March, 2010
10:00 am – 11:15 am	Registration and Refreshments
11:15 am – 11:45 am	Welcome: Setting the scene Hilary Burgess and Jill Anderson with Ann Davis
11:45 am – 12:45 pm	Keynote Presentation: Threshold Concepts and Troublesome Knowledge Professor Glynis Cousin, University of Wolverhampton
12:45 pm – 1:45 pm	Lunch
1:45 pm – 5:15 pm	Workshops, Papers and Posters (including Break)
7:00 pm – 7:30 pm	Drinks reception
7:30 pm	Conference dinner
Wednesday, 31 March, 2010
7:30 am - 9:00 am	Breakfast
9:00 am - 10:00 am	Keynote Presentation: A psychologist's search for the meanings of madness: implications for learning and teaching about mental health Professor Gail Hornstein, Mount Holyoke College, Massachusetts
10:00 am – 10:30 am	Break and Posters
10:30 am – 12.00am	Workshops and Papers
12:00 pm - 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm - 2:30 pm	Workshops and Papers
2:45 pm - 3:45 pm	Keynote Presentation and closing plenary Back to the future: We've lived and learned, but where do we go from here? Professor Ann Davis, Centre of Excellence in Interdisciplinary Mental Health, University of Birmingham
3:45 pm – 4:00 pm	Refreshments
4:00 pm	Finish